Prof1t from the Boss's perspective:

Rostering and Payroll in one system ...

- With it being a single integrated process you are able to obtain 100% wage to revenue data that ties up with the plan vs. the actual. (Plan = Actual roster!)
- It provides for the specific industry payroll costs again ensuring the accuracy of the wage to revenue reports
- You are able to predict current and future wages and costs because the roster which is the plan can be converted to actual wage cost data, without having to export data to a spreadsheet in an attempt to calculate the implication of the roster etc.
